

TEXAS TRANSITION AND EMPLOYMENT GUIDE

What is the Texas Transition and Employment Guide?

It is an electronic guide that is intended to provide students enrolled in special education and their parents with more information about statewide services and programs that will assist with the transition to life outside of public school.

Where can I find it?

Texas Education Agency \(TEA\) website

Texas Transition website

School district or charter school website

When should a school share information about the guide?

The school will provide written information and assistance, if needed, on how to access the electronic guide for parent(s) or guardian(s) at:

The first admission, review, and dismissal (ARD) committee meeting where transition is discussed

The first ARD committee meeting that occurs after the guide is updated by TEA

The Texas Transition and Employment Guide includes information about:

Transition Services

Employment and Supported Employment

Social Security Programs

Community and Long-Term Supports

Public Benefits

Postsecondary Education

Guardianship and Alternatives to Guardianship

State Agency Contacts

Self-Determination

TEXAS TRANSITION AND EMPLOYMENT GUIDE

For more information, click on the link below or scan the QR code.

Legal Requirements for the Texas Transition and Employment Guide

Texas Transition and Employment Guide in English and Spanish

Texas Transition and Employment Guide Online Training Module

Frequently Asked Questions

Can a student or parent request a printed copy of the guide?

Yes, a parent or student can request a printed copy of the guide from your school at any time.

Who can I contact if I need assistance with accessing the guide or if I have questions about information in the guide?

You can contact the Transition and Employment Services Designee (TED) for your school district or charter school. To find the TED for your child's school, click here: Transition and Employment Services Designee Search.